For Immediate Release

Cleveland, Ohio: The Directors of the The Ohio North Coast Chapter of The American Society Of Media Photographers (ASMP) have recently elected North Canton photographer, Shawn Wood, as President. Mr. Wood will preside over the Chapter from March, 2005 though March, 2006.

"I'm looking forward to working with membership during the coming months to develop some new programs and initiatives," Wood said. He added, "In addition to our current programs, such as our annual 'Object Shoot' competition and exhibit, we are planning to enhance our chapter's internet presence and provide greater value to our audience and the community. It's going to be an exciting year!"

The first event under Wood's presidency will be a Spring Show at Cleveland Hopkins Airport's Concourse A Gallery. The show, slated to open May 1, 2005, will feature the work of North Coast ASMP members.

ASMP is the premier resource for community, culture, commerce and publications relating to publication photography. ASMP is the authoritative voice of publication photographers worldwide.

The North Coast Chapter membership is based in and about Northeast Ohio. The organization's members have participated in several noted exhibits and provide a source for highly qualified photographers for area businesses and private parties.

Shawn Wood owns and operates Studio 7 Photography, based in North Canton, Ohio. Since 1985, the studio has created award-winning images for a broad range of commercial clients on a local, regional and national level. The Studio 7 website can be found at www.studio7photography.com.
